

Jeff Applegate

Trustee and Investment Committee Co-chair
Equity-League Benefit Funds
Cranbury, New Jersey

Jeff Applegate is a trustee and investment committee co-chair on the pension and health plans for the Equity-League Benefit Funds. With assets exceeding $2 billion, the Funds provide an estimated $87 million in annual benefits to approximately 13,000 pension recipients. Jeff is the Secretary/Treasurer-Elect of Actors' Equity Association and a member of SAG-AFTRA, with over 20 years of experience in entertainment and business. He has appeared in numerous films, television and theater productions, negotiated touring contracts with the Broadway League, and served on various national and regional governing committees for Actors' Equity. Jeff currently serves on the International Foundation's Trustees Committee. He serves on the Steering Committee of the National Coordinating Committee for Multiemployer Plans. Jeff also owns and operates his own consulting firm that provides database solutions for management, accounting and POS applications for clients, as well as communications, presentation, and media coaching. He holds a Master of Arts in Teaching from Rider University and completed his undergraduate studies at Cornell University, where he earned a dual Bachelor of Arts degree in government and theater arts.