

Jim V. Bracchitta, CEBS

Managing Director
The Entertainment Community Fund
New York, New York

Jim V. Bracchitta is a labor trustee on the Screen Actors Guild (SAG) Pension Plan and the SAG-AFTRA Health Plan. He's currently working as the Associate Director of Health Services at the Entertainment Community Fund, a social service agency in the entertainment industry, a national social service agency that supports entertainment professionals as they navigate a life in the arts. For more than 30 years, Bracchitta has been a professional actor. He's been in six Broadway shows and more than a dozen off-Broadway shows. He's also acted on television, in films, and in thousands of television and radio commercials. Bracchitta has made notable recent appearances on Blue Bloods, The Blacklist, Bull, Orange Is the New Black, Divorce (HBO) and Show Me a Hero (HBO). Bracchitta is a graduate of New York University and a co-founder of the Cape Cod Theatre Project, a non-profit theatre company that develops new American plays in Woods Hole, Massachusetts. He is also a founding trustee of the New Jersey Boys State Foundation and a proud graduate of the Certified Employee Benefits Specialist® (CEBS®) program.