

Kevin Campe

Retired Consulting Actuary
Chicago, Illinois

Kevin Campe recently retired. He was a principal and consulting actuary with Milliman Inc., located in Chicago. He worked there for more than 30 years. Kevin had extensive experience in the actuarial field, including experience with issues relating to defined benefit plans under the requirements of ERISA, the Pension Protection Act, the Multiemployer Pension Reform Act, and the American Rescue Plan Act (ARP). He was actively involved with all aspects of servicing multiemployer plans, including financial projections, withdrawal liability matters, plan administration and plan design, and the impact of financial relief on struggling multiemployer plans as provided in ARP.
