

Brendan Dick

Co-Chair, Defined Benefit Pension Plan
Canadian Blood Services
Coquitlam, British Columbia

Brendan Dick is an experienced corporate director and pension and benefits trustee. He is a former Chair of the Board of Directors of Pacific Blue Cross and a former director of the Blue Cross Life Insurance Company of Canada. He previously served as Director of Pensions and Benefits for the Hospital Employees' Union and as coordinator of the Enhanced Disability Management Program for the Facilities Bargaining Association.

He is co-chair of the Canadian Blood Services defined benefit pension plan and has served as a Canadian Blood Services trustee since 2005. He is also co-chair of the Joint Facilities Benefit Trust and a trustee of the Health Investment Unit Trust.

He is a former member of the Canadian Board of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans and was an inaugural instructor in the International Foundation's Master of Trust Management Standards program. He served as chair and vice-chair of the Municipal Pension Board of Trustees between 2003 and 2014, served for more than 15 years on the Audit Committee for British Columbia's Municipal, Public Service, College and Teachers' pension plans, and was a member of the Board of Directors of the B.C. Pension Corporation.

He completed the Advanced Trust Management Standards program through the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans and the Responsible Trustee Program through the Sauder School of Business. He is a graduate of the Institute of Corporate Directors' Directors Education Program and holds the ICD.D designation.