

Mindy Harris, CRA, CRC

Senior Consultant
Wealthspire Advisors
Long Beach, Washington

Mindy Harris joined Wealthspire in 2012 as a senior consultant, specializing in public sector retirement plans. She advises clients on fiduciary responsibility, plan administration, participant and fiduciary education, and provider services and relationships. Prior to joining Wealthspire, Mindy served Multnomah County (Portland), Oregon as the Chief Financial Officer and Director of County Administration. Mindy administered Multnomah County's 457 deferred compensation plan for 20 years. She was elected to the executive board of the National Association of Government Defined Contribution Administrators (NAGDCA), serving as President of the association in 2008. While president, Mindy testified before the U.S. House Ways and Means Committee regarding fee disclosure for retirement plans and accounts. She graduated from Portland State University in Business Administration, and earned her designations as a Certified Retirement Administrator and Certified Retirement Counselor through the International Foundation for Retirement Education.
