

Catalina Kirby, CPA

Partner
Miller Kaplan
Seattle, Washington

Catalina Kirby, a partner in charge of Miller Kaplan's Seattle office, has worked in public accounting for more than 20 years. She focuses primarily on audits, specializing in financial statement audits and reviews for employee benefit plans and nonprofit organizations. Kirby sits on the firm's Quality Control Committee, overseeing the audit unification program and ensuring that firm-wide audit procedures meet current audit standards and remain consistent throughout Miller Kaplan's multiple office locations. She is a graduate of California State University of Northridge and a licensed CPA in California and Washington.