

Richard Masur

Labor Trustee

SAG Pension Plan & SAG-AFTRA Health Plan Burbank, California

Richard Masur has, for many years, served on the boards of trustees of the Screen Actors Guild Producers Pension Plan and the SAG-AFTRA Health Plan. First elected to the board of his union, Screen Actors Guild, in 1989, he served for two years, subsequently being elected SAG third national vice president for four years before leading the union as its national president. He worked for over 20 years to help effect the merger of SAG and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, and subsequently he became a founding national board member of the newly formed SAG-AFTRA. Richard is also a founding member of the Motion Picture & Television Fund Corporation and served on the California Film Commission. He has served as a member of the National Film Preservation Board, advising the librarian of Congress for over 20 years. Richard has made his living as an actor and director for 53 years. He has starred in more than 50 feature films, over 50 television films and several TV series. His five decades of credits can be found on the IMDb website. Richard has also appeared in numerous Broadway and off-Broadway shows.
