

Kevin Reid, CFA

Chief Operating Officer
Fengate Asset Management
Oakville, Ontario

Kevin Reid is the Chief Operating Officer (COO) at Fengate Asset Management and a member of the Executive Leadership Team. He oversees the firm's corporate functions, including investor relations and capital formation, legal, human resources, communications and marketing, information technology and internal operations. In this role, Kevin focuses on strengthening cross-functional collaboration across the organization ensuring that firm-wide initiatives support Fengate's long-term strategy and scalable growth.

Prior to his appointment as COO, he served as Executive Vice President, Investor Relations and Capital Formation. In that role, he oversaw the firm's relationships with existing and prospective investors and led fundraising efforts across the infrastructure, real estate and private equity businesses.

Prior to joining Fengate, Kevin worked in management consulting at Oliver Wyman and in financial services at TD Bank Group in Toronto. He holds an honours bachelor of commerce degree from Queen's University and is a CFA charterholder.