

Marg Romanow, R.N., CEBS, MTMS, ICD.D, Q.Arb, Q.Med

Pension and Benefit Board Trustee
Regina, Saskatchewan

Marg Romanow worked as a labour and benefits officer for over 30 years. She assisted nurses with long-term disability appeals and other related pension and benefit issues. Marg has served on a number of pension and benefit boards and committees. She is a registered nurse and has obtained the Certified Employee Benefit Specialist® (CEBS®) designation through the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans. Marg has completed the Foundations of Trust Management Standards (FTMS®) and Advanced Trust Management Standards (ATMS®) programs and earned her Master of Trust Management Standards (MTMS®) credential. She now facilitates at the MTMS Session B program. She has completed the Institute of Corporate Directors Education Program to earn the ICD.D designation and completed the Osgoode Pension Law Certificate. Marg is a Mediator and Arbitrator addressing resolution of conflict in personal and work-place matters. She continues to serve on three jointly sponsored trustee pension and benefit boards. Marg is the International Foundation's Canadian Board Chair, a voting director on the Board of Directors and a member of the Canadian Strategic and Program Planning Committee.