BDO Canada LLP

Oakville, Ontario

Krista Tartaglia is a partner at BDO Canada LLP. She has over 19 years of experience in public accounting, providing assurance, accounting, and advisory services to clients in multiple sectors with a specialization in pensions as well as other employee benefit trust funds and their related union entities. As BDO Canada's Pension and Benefits Operational Excellence Leader, Krista is involved with talent initiatives including developing internal pension and benefit training, resourcing and job efficiency. She also provides consulting to other BDO offices across Canada on relevant pension and employee benefit fund issues, including completion of technical file reviews for complex issues. Krista is an active member of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans and regularly attends and speaks at various Foundation conferences. As a partner in the assurance group, she leads the assurance talent initiative for the Oakville office. Krista also participates in the national quality assurance review process by reviewing technical and qualitative aspects of work performed across BDO offices. As a past director on the YMCA Canada National Board, she sat on the Executive HR, and Technology (and formerly Governance) committees and chaired the Finance, Audit and Risk Committee.
